THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE
GODA RAGHURAM

W.P.No. 18513 of 2007

Oral Order:

Despite sensitizing the learned counsel for the petitioner that there is no entity called A.P. State Higher Education and that the Andhra Pradesh State Council for Higher Education represented by the Secretary should have been arrayed as the second respondent instead of by the title “The Secretary, A.P. State Higher Education, Hyderabad”, the learned counsel for the petitioner is unwilling to amend the cause title. According to the learned counsel for the petitioner Smt. T.H. Sowbhagya Lakshmi, the fact that the name of Sri C. Sudesh Anand, learned standing counsel for the Andhra Pradesh State Council for Higher Education is printed in the cause list is sufficient and the cause title in the writ petition need not be amended. This Court does not consider it the legal position that the ‘cause title’ should be understood on the basis of the ‘cause list’. Since neither the petitioner nor her counsel is inclined to amend the cause title, the writ petition is dismissed for non-joinder of necessary parties.

Accordingly, the writ petition is dismissed. No costs.
